FLY FISHING NOTES

Guided Fly fishing in Scotland will have its challenges, unpredictable weather and Midgies. We do advise that if coming to the Highlands of Scotland bring appropriate clothing and a Midgie net.

EQUIPMENT

We will supply all the equipment to include:

Rods – We have weights ranging from 4 weight to 12 weight

Waders – We cover all sizes (Breathable Waders – Stocking Foot)

Boots – We supply all sizes

Jackets – All Wading Jackets with various Sizes to fit all.

Flies – We provide a wide and varied range of Flies to cover all aspects of fly fishing.

Lines – RIO lines to include Shooting Heads, Skagit and Spey Lines.

Reels – All Reels for either Salmon, Salt Water or Fresh Water species.

Lifejackets – Life Jackets will have to be worn in certain conditions such as wading etc.

Transport

We will arrange collection to and from your Hotel for all Fly fishing venues. This will be by 4X4 to enable us to get to those remote Hill Lochs and Salmon Beats.

Food

All food and beverages will be provided during your time with us. Roz my partner will prepare all Hampers or Hot meals either on location or in the morning if we are heading off into the Hills.

All Food products are freshly prepared in the morning of your departure and will be supplied to you at lunch time either by your Guide or by Roz herself.

Species Seasons

Wild Brown trout – 15th March until the 30th September

Sea Trout – 3rd April until the 31st October

Atlantic Salmon – 1st February until the 31st October

Pike – 1st October until the 14th March (Traditionalised Dates but can be caught all year round)

Perch – No Closed season (We recommend Summer Months)

Grayling – No Closed Season (We recommend Winter Months)

Rainbow – No Closed Season

Salt Water – No Closed season (We Recommend Summer – early Winter months)

Mobile Phones

Due to the remoteness of the Highlands expect a limited signal, a phone signal may be possible from most mountain tops but we do have a facility available to our clients that will allow contact if required.
